Who are we?

Our association develops projects that encompass digital skills, creative thinking, communication, problem-solving, and much more. By combining our imagination, passion, and energy, we organize activities that benefit our surroundings and society.

What is our Goal?

Committed to the well-being of our young community, we focus on developing essential 21st-century skills and knowledge for their holistic growth.

Embark on a journey filled with international youth exchanges, training sessions, seminars, and voluntary events designed to enhance skills and global perspectives.

What did we do?

Circular Future

Embrace Yourself

LIVE

Circular Future was a project aimed at equipping youth workers with knowledge and awareness of circular economy principles.

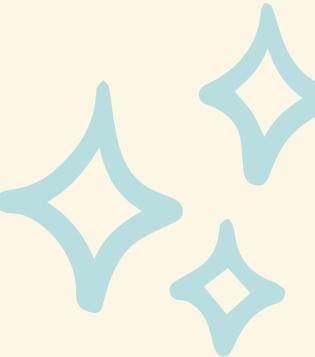

Circular Future

"Embrace Yourself" was a project aimed at supporting young people's mental health through Expressive Art Therapy and a virtual therapy museum in the Metaverse.

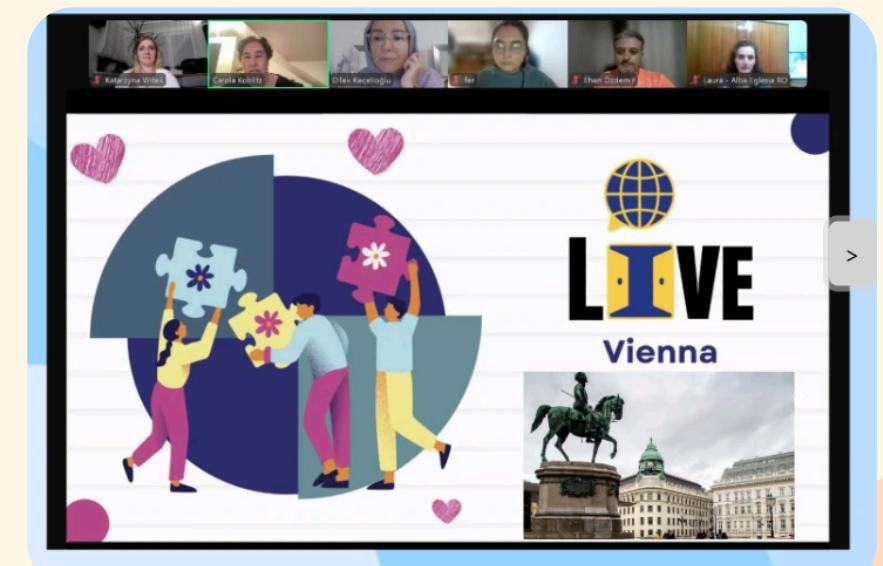

Embrace Yourself

Linguistic Integration for Vibrant Education

It is a project that addresses how traditional classifications of languages can hinder multilingual youths' development and motivation.
