

Creating Cultural Connections Through Art

Welcome to the Association of Amateur Artists - Cultural Center Xanadu Art in Ohrid, where we are passionate about fostering cultural integration, artistic expression, and youth engagement. Through a combination of theatrical productions, individual development initiatives, and platform creation, we aim to build a network for diverse ethnicities and cultures. As a newly formed association, our dedication has led to successful participation in an Erasmus+ program for young people, showcasing our commitment to collaboration and innovation.

Youth Engagement Initiatives

1 Stimulating Participation

We strive to stimulate young people's involvement in cultural activities such as theater, dance, and music, encouraging their social participation and creativity.

2 Fostering Social Engagement

Our goal is to foster a sense of community and social engagement through various artistic activities, providing a platform for young talents to flourish.

Theatrical Productions and Artistic Creation

Increased Artistic Output

We are dedicated to increasing the output of theatrical performances and actively encouraging artistic creation among the youth, providing them with a stage to showcase their talents.

Empowering Young Artists

Through our efforts, we aim to empower young individuals to express themselves artistically by creating meaningful and impactful work within the theatrical realm.

Bridging Cultures and Ethnicities

Networking and Workshops

We strive to build bridges between different ethnicities and cultures through networking, workshops, exchanges, and dialogue within the artistic sphere, promoting mutual understanding and respect.

Creating an Inclusive Platform

Our focus is on developing a platform that fosters interaction, acceptance, and mutual understanding among diverse ethnic groups, encouraging unity within the artistic community.

Nurturing Individual Development

Social Skills Enhancement

We focus on enhancing the social skills and individuality of young individuals through artistic expression, providing them with a platform to grow and thrive.

Artistic Growth Opportunities

We aim to provide young individuals with opportunities for artistic growth, enabling them to express themselves creatively and gain confidence in their abilities.
